

Course Transfer Policy

Purpose of the policy

This policy and associated procedures ensure that RTO does not knowingly enrol an international student who wishes to transfer from another registered provider prior to the international student completing six months of their principle course.

This policy and associated procedures meet the requirements of Standard 7 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018.

Policy statements

Overview

RTO will not knowingly enrol an international student who wishes to transfer from another registered provider's course prior to the student completing six months of his or her principal course except in the case of any of the following circumstances:

- the releasing registered provider or the course in which the student is enrolled has ceased to be registered;
- the releasing registered provider has had a sanction imposed on its registration by ASQA that prevents the student from continuing their principal course at that registered provider;
- the releasing registered provider has agreed to the overseas student's release and recorded the date of effect and reason for release in PRISMS;
- any government sponsor of the student considers the change to be in the student's best interest and has provided written support for that change.

Assessing course transfer requests to other registered providers and circumstances where the transfer request will be granted

International students who wish to transfer to another registered provider prior to completing six months of their principle course must complete a Withdrawal Form and attach a valid offer from another registered provider.

The outcome of the assessment will be provided within 10 working days of receipt of the form and valid enrolment offer. Where the request is granted, a Letter of Release will be provided. The Letter of Release will advise students to contact the DHA to seek advice on whether a new student visa is required. Refunds will be in accordance with RTO Fees and Refunds Policy and Procedure.

The transfer request will be granted where any of the following circumstances apply:

- The student will be reported because they are unable to achieve satisfactory course progress at the level they are studying, even after engaging with RTO intervention strategy to assist the overseas student in accordance with Standard 8 (Overseas student visa requirements).
- There is evidence of compassionate or compelling circumstances.

- RTO fails to deliver the course as outlined in the Offer Letter and Student Agreement.
- There is evidence that the student's reasonable expectations about their current course are not being met.
- There is evidence that the student was misled by RTO or an education or migration agent regarding RTO or its course and the course is therefore unsuitable to their needs and/or study objectives.
- An appeal (internal or external) on another matter results in a decision or recommendation to release the student.

Circumstances where the transfer request will not be granted

A transfer request will not be granted where any of the following circumstances apply:

- There are no legitimate compassionate or compelling circumstances.
- The student has not paid their fees.
- The transfer may jeopardise the student's progression through a package of courses.
- The student has recently started studying the course and the full range of support services are yet to be provided or offered to the student.
- The student is trying to avoid being reported to DHA for failure to meet the provider's attendance or academic progress requirements.

Where the request is not granted, the reasons for non-grant of the request will be communicated in writing using the Refusal of Request for Course Transfer Template. The letter will advise the student that they may access the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure to appeal the decision within 20 working days of receipt of the decision.

RTO will not finalise the student's refusal status in PRISMS until the appeal process is complete and either finds in favour of RTO or until the 20-working day period in which the student can access the complaints and appeals process has passed.

Internal transfer

RTO allows students to transfer to other courses offered by RTO in any of the following circumstances:

- the course better meets the study capabilities of the student; and/or
- the course better meets the long-term goals of the student, whether these relate to future work, education or personal aspirations; and/or
- the student provides evidence that their reasonable expectations about the current course are not being met.

A transfer to another course within RTO will not be granted in any of the following circumstances:

- The transfer may jeopardise the student's progression through a package of courses.
- The student has recently started studying the course and the full range of support services are yet to be provided or offered to the student.
- The student is trying to avoid being reported to DHA for failure to meet the provider's attendance or academic progress requirements.

International students who wish to transfer to another course must complete an Internal Course Transfer Application Form.

The outcome of the student's application for course transfer will be provided in writing within 10 working days of receipt of the form. Where the application is not granted, reasons for such will be provided.

Record keeping

RTO will maintain all records of requests for course transfer and documentation associated with the assessment and decision regarding the request. Records will be maintained for a minimum of 2 years following the student's completion or withdrawal from their course.

Purpose of the policy

This policy and associated procedures outline RTO approach to managing the enrolment of international students, specifically deferrals, suspensions and cancellations, and ensuring all required information about enrolments is entered into PRISMS.

This policy and associated procedures meet the requirements of Standard 9 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018.

Policy statements

Student-initiated deferral or suspension or cancellation

International students can defer or suspend their studies. RTO allows the deferral or suspension of studies where evidence of compassionate or compelling circumstances can be provided by students.

Evidence of compassionate or compelling circumstances will be considered as part of the decision about suspension or cancellation.

Deferrals and leave of absences will be approved for up to 12 months.

International students may withdraw from their course at any time. Where an international student has not already completed six months of their principal course of study, their application will be assessed as per RTO Course Transfer Policy and Associated Procedures. International students are entitled to a refund as per RTO Fees and Refunds Policy and Associated Procedures.

Provider-initiated suspension or cancellation

A student's enrolment may be cancelled or suspended by RTO in a range of circumstances:

- misbehaviour (ie not abiding by the Student Code of Conduct as outlined in this Handbook)
- not paying course fees
- not meeting course progress and attendance requirements.

Not paying course fees and not meeting course progress and attendance requirements will be managed as documented in the Fees and Refunds and Course Progress and Attendance Policy and Associated Procedures.

Any student who breaches the Code of Conduct as applicable to expected behaviour will be immediately suspended. Their case will be considered during the period of suspension and the student may then be reinstated or have their enrolment cancelled.

Where any of the above circumstances apply, the student will be contacted in writing with regard to the intended suspension or cancellation and the reasons for this.

Students will be able to access the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure to appeal the decision within 20 working days of receipt of the decision.

Students will not be reported until the internal appeal process is complete, unless their health and wellbeing or that of others could be at risk.

Students are advised to contact the DHA to seek advice on their student visa.
